

IDIOM TASKS

For a sample, see byrdseed.com/idioms

Monday:

- Use each idiom in a sentence.
- Make your sentences interesting, unusual, and exciting!
- Optional: connect your sentences into a story.

Tuesday:

- Sketch two scenes.
- The first should show the literal meaning of the idiom.
- The second should show the figurative meaning.

Wednesday:

- Pick at least one idiom.
- Research that idiom's origins.
- Find at least three sources, because there may be multiple possible origins.

Thursday:

- Write a summary of your week using each idiom.
  - This summary must be completely made up. Do not describe your actual week.
  - Make it fun and entertaining!
-

IDIOM TASKS

For a sample, see byrdseed.com/idioms

Monday:

- Use each idiom in a sentence.
- Make your sentences interesting, unusual, and exciting!
- Optional: connect your sentences into a story.

Tuesday:

- Sketch two scenes.
- The first should show the literal meaning of the idiom.
- The second should show the figurative meaning.

Wednesday:

- Pick at least one idiom.
- Research that idiom's origins.
- Find at least three sources, because there may be multiple possible origins.

Thursday:

- Write a summary of your week using each idiom.
- This summary must be completely made up. Do not describe your actual week.
- Make it fun and entertaining!